Notice

Cancellation of Admission and Refund of Admission Fee

As per the rule of The University of Burdwan, one student can register from only one college. Students admitted in more than one college will be required to cancel their admission from all other colleges on their own before University registration through our college.

Admitted students unwilling to study at GGDC-Singur need to send a request mail at admissionggdcsingur2021@gmail.com addressing the Principal of GGDC-Singur within 1st September, 2022 providing the following attachments:

1. scanned copy of the request letter with the full signature of the applicant;
2. soft copies of :
 - a. application form;
 - b. admission fee payment receipt.

The candidates must also mention in the request mail the bank account details given by the them in the application form previously. The candidate must provide the abovementioned documents in order to get a refund of the admission fees. The college will intimate the students via email as soon as their verification is completed.
