

INTERVIEW FOR THE POST JRF OF WEST BENGAL DST PROJECT AT GGDC SINGUR

Walkin interview for a post of JRF of the West Bengal DST running Project entitled “Non biting Midge Farming and its Application as Potential Nutritious Food in Fish Cultivation, tool for Eco-restoration as well as use of byproducts in agriculture” of Dr. Susanta Nath, Associate Professor of Zoology, Government General Degree College Singur, will be held on 12 noon, 22.01.2019 (Tuesday) at The Principal chamber of the college.

Candidate having at least 55% of Marks in M Sc or equivalent examination, with minimum of 2 years of research experience may apply for the post. NET/SLET/GATE and knowledge in Chironomus insect is desirable.

Candidates are requested to send positively their resume to nathsusanta2012@gmail.com before 22.01.2019. Advertisement of the above project will appear on ‘Bartaman’ Bengali News Paper on 13.01.2019 (Sunday).